DR. SHAHAN MADE RECTOR

Washington Priest Selected to Manage Catholic University.

Clergyman by Conferring Title of Biskop Upon Him.

Cardinal Gibbons has received a letter from the papal secretary of state, in Rome announcing that Pope Pius X has selected Rev. Dr. Thomas J. Shahan for Pope's action. The letter of the Pope reached the cardinal much sooner than he expected, and he considers it signifi-

quick selection. Dr. Shahan is considered one of the oremost educators of this country. He has been connected with the university almost from its inception, occupying the chair of ecclesiastical history. That he was chosen as head of the university i considered by his friends as a mark of appreciation for his long and faithfu service to the institution.

Bishop John P. Carroll, of Helena, Mont, was thought by many to be the logical successor to Bishop O'Connell, but Members of the faculty of the uni-versity believe that Dr. Shahan will be further honored. It is suggested that he

Dr. Shahan was born in Manchester. N. H. In 1857 he was graduated from Montreal College, Canada. Later he was ordained priest after studying in the American College at Rome, and he received the degree of doctor of divinity Dr. Shahan has also studied at the University of Berlin and the Serbonne, in Paris.
